

St Cloud Area Mental Health Providers

Serving Children Birth -5

There are many public and private resources in the St. Cloud area community that provide assessment and counseling services. This list should not be interpreted as a recommendation, or considered to be comprehensive. The following is a list of the known providers, as of March 2009, who provide services for very young children. Please contact the agencies directly. Clinicians who have stars beside their name have specialized training in early childhood mental health practice – see below for details.
